

Personal.

Mr. Jerry Newman is at home from Nazareth for the holidays.

Mr. E. P. Bryan returned Saturday from a trip to Arkansas.

Miss Eliza Johnston has returned from a visit to friends in Louisville.

Mrs. Dr. Hall is slowly improving from her recent severe illness.

Mr. D. B. Walcutt left yesterday for a visit to Bowling Green.

Miss Jennie McDonald is at home from school at Nazareth.

Mr. Chas. O. Reynolds and wife, of Lexington, are visiting relatives in this city.

Messrs. Hugh Gaines and Nevil Garrett are at home from Georgetown College for the holidays.

Mr. Howard Orbison is at home for the holidays from school at Staunton, Virginia.

Miss Nellie Rodman is at home from school at Nicholasville for the holidays.

Miss Josie Davidson and sister Nettie have gone to Lagrange to spend the holidays with friends.

Capt. J. N. Abrahams returned Tuesday from a trip to Wichita, Kansas.

Col. J. Stoddard Johnston left Tuesday afternoon for a trip to Nashville.

Mrs. C. E. Merrill, of Memphis, Tennessee, is visiting relatives in this city.

Ed. S. Ely has come down from Richmond to spend the holidays with his parents, Dr. J. C. Ely and wife.

Mr. E. W. Hines left on Thursday for Bowling Green, to spend the holidays with relatives.

Mr. Lucien Wagener, jr., is at home from Princeton College, New Jersey, for the holidays.

Mr. Grant Green, jr., is at home from Covington to spend Christmas with his family.

Mr. Geo. E. Deekbach, of Cincinnati, who has been visiting his cousin, Mr. Oscar Herencourt, returned home yesterday morning.

Miss Allie Hines, who has been visiting friends in this city, left for her home in Bowling Green yesterday morning.

Miss Millie McCormick has just returned from a four weeks visit to her cousin, Mrs. James T. Duvall, of Monterey, Owen county.

Mr. James Corbett, son of Hon. T. H. Corbett, is quite sick with rheumatism at his father's residence in this city.

Mrs. S. T. Bailey left Thursday evening for Versailles, to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. J. C. Thornton.

Messrs. Henry Craik, Ed. Bull, Clarence Julian and John Ziegler returned Wednesday from College at Danville to spend the holidays.

Miss Rose Stewart, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. W. L. Radman, in Louisville, has returned home.

Mrs. W. H. Carter, who has been visiting her parents in this county the past three months, left Wednesday afternoon for home in Deland, Florida.

Mrs. Helen McClure and children left Wednesday for the Stamping Ground, to spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. E. H. Black and wife.

Miss Margaret A. Lewis leaves this morning for Lexington, to spend the holidays with Miss Mary Milward, who has been quite sick, and is now improving slowly.

Henry Lindsey, Lee Dudley, and Fayette Hewitt have returned from Trinity Hall School, Louisville, to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents.

The little girl of Mr. James Greenup, who has been so seriously ill for some time, is now, we are glad to say, rapidly recovering and will soon be entirely well.

Mrs. Rachael Maupin and Miss Bonnie Beshoar, of Trinidad, Colorado, who have been visiting relatives in this city and county for the past two months, left Monday afternoon for home.

Mr. Harry Stephens, who has accepted a position at the Mayfield Distillery, near New Haven, Kentucky, is here for the purpose of moving his family to that place.

LATER.—Mr. Harry T. Stephens and family left Thursday afternoon for New Haven to reside.

The bad weather this week has made the Christmas trade of our merchants exceedingly dull.

It is said a young lady residing in this city will marry a young man from Eminence early in the new year.

and Esoteric Mason Lodges will elect officers on Monday evening for the ensuing year. Hi ram, No. 4, will meet at 7 o'clock and Esoteric, No. 532, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance of the members on both occasions is requested, and all visiting brothers cordially invited.

Mr. J. W. Walker, for the past four years an assistant engineer on the Kentucky River Improvement, was married at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to Miss Lena Stout, of Carrollton, at the home of the bride. The happy young couple left the same afternoon for a bridal trip to Maine, where they will spend several weeks with Mr. Walker's relatives, and then return to this city for the balance of the winter. Mr. Walker has a host of friends in this city, who congratulate him on having secured so fair a prize.

Miss Lida Graham, of this city, was married to Mr. J. B. Eaton, of Clay City, Estill county, Kentucky, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mag. Graham, on Wednesday last, Rev. G. F. Bagby officiating. The young couple left on the C. & O. train the same evening for a wedding trip, after which they will go to the home of the groom in Clay City.

In the departure of Miss Lida from our city, this community loses one of the sweetest and brightest girls who ever lived in it, and Mr. Eaton wins a wife of whom any man may be proud. We hear only good reports of the young gentleman, who is an entire stranger here.

The store houses of Sol. Harris' are crowded from morning till night because goods are given away.

H. LAUB.

National Aid for Common Schools.

WHY SHOULD THE BILL PASS?

Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, says: The measure now before the Senate has never been surpassed in the elevation and benevolence of its spirit, nor in the magnitude and value of its immediate and ultimate purpose.

I am told, Mr. President, that, with all the good purposes of this bill, it is not within the purview of the constitution. The policy of this Government, on this subject, is as plain as a well-beaten pathway. Do you answer that lands can be granted, but not money? Money is no more a thing of value than land. One is a commodity as the other is. I never did believe, and do not now, that a power was originally injected in the Constitution by which this Government could be destroyed. I firmly believe, too, that the power of self-preservation exists in this Government. The object of its creation was to live, not to die.

If you want any goods at half their value, call early at Sol. Harris' old stand.

H. LAUB.

Cloaks for ladies, misses and children at 50 cents below cost.

It is said that there is a higher and easier circumstances residing in this county, whose cribs are full of corn and yet his hogs are dying in large numbers in the field because he is too infernally mean to feed them. There certainly should be some law to punish such cruelty to dumb brutes, but if the grand jury cannot reach him at its February term, he should be drummed out of the county. Such a man is a disgrace to the community in which he lives.

For the next fifteen days I will offer at a bargain, two No. 7 May Flowers, one Jewel Range No. 8, one No. 8 Champion Monitor, one No. 8 Capitoline, one No. 8 Improved Delight. All first-class stoves. Call early and get first choice.

JNO. T. BUCKLEY.

Mr. S. L. Thomasson, of the Woodlake neighborhood, is the champion turkey raiser of the county. He brought to this city on Monday a fine fat one, which weighed, after it was dressed, thirty-five pounds. It was purchased by Mrs. W. T. Scott and shipped to friends in New York.

My order to Sol. Harris is to sacrifice goods at any price, because they must be sold in a few days.

H. LAUB.

Mr. French and Miss Eva Hoge gave an elegant entertainment at their country residence, at Jones' Station, on Wednesday evening. A large number of young people went out from the city, and all were charmed with the hospitable manner in which they were entertained.

If you want good bargains in groceries call on John Driscoll, 237 St. Clair street.

I still have 2,000 yards of carpet, which I will close out at your own price.

If you have overlooked the very attractive advertisement of Messrs. Weitzel & O'Donnell on another page, we desire to call your attention to their announcement of the great slaughter of prices.

Call and examine our stock of New Year cards.

Glassware and queensware at very low prices at John Driscoll's, 237 St. Clair street.

WINDOW GLASS, all sizes, at A. H. Waggoner's, Market street grocer.

Rubber clothing for ladies, gents and children. Umbrellas, zinc trunks and leather valises will go at any reasonable offer.

Buckley is agent for Clayton Grate Reflectors.

Coal! Coal!

Best quality, coarse, clean, dry Pittsburg and Raymond City coal in dry box cars—no rain, ice, sleet or snow on it—for sale at the old reliable headquarters for best grades of coal and coke.

GEO. B. MACKLIN, Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 17, 1886. It

EDUCATIONAL.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association will meet in Frankfort on Saturday, January 8th, 1887, at the office of Col. T. B. Ford.

- PROGRAMME.
1. Opening exercises.
 2. What have we done during the past year? Response by the members.
 3. The importance of Grammar as a study—J. B. Lea.
 4. Essay, The power of language—Miss Maggie Downey.
 5. Address, Why we teach—J. R. Harrod.
 6. Select reading—Miss M. T. Merma.
 7. Mental Arithmetic, How to teach—Miss Lulu Wiard.
 8. Our work for the year—Col. T. B. Ford.
- Closing Remarks.
- Selection of delegates for the Lexington meeting, Feb. 22d, 1887.
- RUTH ROBINSON,
BELLE DELINE,
MAGGIE DOWNEY,
Committee.

Kid gloves, stitched back, mosquito and button in all shades and styles, at Sol. Harris' old stand.

H. LAUB

Bald Knob.

Xmas gift from all the readers of the ROUNDABOUT.

Miss Beekie Clark, who has been very sick with malarial fever, is some better.

Mr. A. J. Hulett, of Tioga, teacher of the Public School at this place, closed his school on last Tuesday with the highest honors. He is a very successful and earnest teacher, besides being an agreeable gentleman for whom pupils and patrons entertain the highest esteem.

Jas. A. Scott, of Frankfort, attended the closing exercises of school on Tuesday last.

Mr. Robt. Lee is very sick with malarial fever.

DIED.—On last Tuesday, little three year old daughter of Hugh Rearden.

Mr. Geo. Gordon, who resides near Bailey's Mill had his house destroyed by fire one day last week.

The following recipe is for those that do not know; follow the directions carefully:

HOW TO MAKE SCANDAL.

Take a grain of falsehood, a handful of rumabout, the same quantity of nimble-tongue, a sprig of the herb back-bite, a teaspoonful of don't you tell it, six drops of malice and a few drachms of envy; add a little discontent and jealousy and strain through a bag of misconstruction, cork it up in a bottle of malevolence and hang it up on a skein of street-yarn; keep it in a hot atmosphere, shake it occasionally for a few days and it will be fit for use. Let a few drops be taken before walking out and the desired result will follow.

Try it Zeke.

If you want pure Anderson county sour mash whisky call on John Driscoll, 237 St. Clair st.

Fruits, candies, &c., at Howard Bros.

It was difficult even to walk in the middle of the street yesterday.

A large stock of rattan chairs at cost at R. Rogers'.

For feed of all kinds go to Jewel Mills.

For corn, hominy, offal, ground rye, outs and cracked corn go to Jewel Mills.

Take your corn to Jewel Mills for meal or hominy.

Fifteen prisoners were received at the Penitentiary Thursday afternoon from Lexington.

Bridgeport.

Warmer.

Light rains.

More moving.

A merry Christmas, ROUNDABOUT.

B. K. Wade, Esq., R. R. contractor, was in the village several days this week.

Mr. Jas. W. Harrod was at Bagdad last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Jas Wade and wife, of Louisville, arrived in this village yesterday, where they will spend the holidays.

C. H. Parrent sustained injuries Friday of last week by a fall, totally disabling him from his duties as teacher, and from the effects of which he has suffered intensely. No ribs, however, were broken as at first reported.

Lem Sheets has, so far, recovered from a recent severe cut on the knee by a drawing knife, as to be able to walk without crutches.

We read in a recent issue of a religious journal, "It is about time to think about a Christmas gift for pastor's." The editor asks, "and what about the editor?" And we ask, and what about a $20 or $30 school teacher?

Mary Roberts is quite ill with malarial fever.

We are glad to announce Katie Mayhail as being very much better.

Mr. J. W. Jenkins and Misses Bettie McWilliams and Alma Scofield, paid a visit to friends in Shelby county last Saturday and Sunday.

A few more ice houses yet to fill.

Mrs. Martha Jackson is still quite feeble, though some better.

Dave Miller is engaged in painting in this town. Dave is a good one and don't you forget it.

NOTICE!

THERE WILL BE A MEETING OF THE stockholders of the Deposit Bank of Frankfort at their banking house in Frankfort, on MONDAY, JANUARY 8th, 1887, to elect agents for the ensuing year. H. T. WATSON, Cashier.

1886 THE COURIER-JOURNAL 1888

AN ORGAN OF LIVING IDEAS AND LIVE ISSUES. AN EXHIBIT OF Monopolies, Churchmen, and the spirit of sectional hatred.

The Courier-Journal (Henry Watterson, Editor-in-Chief), is the acknowledged Representative Newspaper of the South, its columns are read by the first, best, and all the time for a to action of the War Taxes as levied on the people by the tariff now in force.

The Weekly Courier-Journal is the best weekly newspaper published in the United States, and it is a quantity and quality of matter that appears in each issue of it, it is the greatest. Its telegraphic news is the best of the world, and it has the services of the ablest writers and correspondents in the country. It presents the news of the week from every section of the world. It gives to its readers throughout the year a greater number of Social and Short Stories by prominent and popular writers than any of the high-priced magazines. It is in every respect a Model Political and Family Paper.

The Weekly Courier-Journal has by far the Largest Circulation of any Democratic Newspaper in America.

It is acknowledged by press and people throughout the United States to be a great paper; great in size; great in enterprise; great in ability; great in its correctness of information; great in variety; great in every sense of the word. It is the paper that every body should have. To be without it is a great opportunity lost. Those who once take it are not willing to be without it in their homes.

FREE PREMIUMS.

A list of handsome and useful premiums of great variety are offered free to yearly subscribers. On receipt of a request for them, we send free of charge a sample copy of Weekly Courier-Journal and our Premium Supplement, giving our full list of premiums, to any address.

SUBSCRIPTION TERMS.

Weekly, one year, including a free premium, $1.50
Weekly, twelve issues of five and over, without premium, each 1.10
For every club of five names sent us at one time, the sender of club will be sent as a present any one of our free premiums selected by him.
Daily, (except Sunday), one year, $10.00
Daily, (except Sunday), six months, 5.00
Daily, (except Sunday), one month, 1.00
Sunday, one year, 2.00
Sunday, six months, 1.00

No traveling agents are employed by the Courier-Journal, but a good local agent is wanted for it in every community, to whom a liberal cash commission is allowed. If the Courier-Journal has no local agent in your neighborhood, send to us for our Agent's Convancing Outfit, which we send free of charge. All subscription orders, requests for outfit, sample copies, etc., should be addressed to

W. N. HALDEMAN,
President Courier-Journal Co.,
LOUISVILLE, KY.